

52% Coalition – Women Vote! May 17, 2005

Media Advisory

April 27, 2005

52% Coalition presents a Candidates' Forum on Women's Issues,
Friday, April 29 in Vancouver

Adriane Carr, Jenny Kwan and Linda Reid confirmed to attend

Vancouver - Women's issues will be the sole focus of a Candidates' Forum sponsored by the 52% Coalition on Friday, April 29 at the Vancouver Public Library (Alice McKay Room) from 7:00 to 9:30 pm.

New Democrat Jenny Kwan, BC Liberal Linda Reid and Green Party BC leader Adriane Carr will outline their parties' platforms and answer questions from a three-person panel and from the audience.

What: 52% Coalition presents A Candidates' Forum on Women's Issues

When: Friday, April 29
7:00 to 9:30 pm

Where: Alice McKay Room
Vancouver Public Library
350 West Georgia

Contact: Caryn Duncan
Ph: 604-736-4234

There is no charge to attend and light refreshments will be offered.

The 52% Coalition is a non-partisan coalition of women including elder women, educators, students and academics, women from health care, child care advocates, women's centres' proponents, anti-poverty activists and women working in law.

The 52% Coalition seeks to inform and educate women by putting women's issues on the electoral agenda, encouraging women to engage in the political process and getting women out to vote.

-30-

For more information, contact: Caryn Duncan, 604-736-4234