

Vancouver has the highest number of police per capita in Canada.

The VPD receives the most complaints against its officers in BC.

Over the next 2 years, the VPD will receive $7.2 million added to its already bloated budget of a $112 million.

Police Brutality Happens Everyday

The Coalition Against Police Brutality is a loose coalition of groups and individuals united to stop police harassment and brutality, targeted policing, massive police spending, police incompetence and corruption, and discriminatory law enforcement.
