

Harm Reduction and Drug Policy Reform Websites

Australian Drug Foundation <http://www.adf.org.au/>. ~Australian drug policy/harm reduction information.

Canadian Foundation for Drug Policy - <http://www.cfdp.ca>. ~Canada's web site on drug policy reform.

Dancesafe <http://www.dancesafe.org/>. ~ Information on Club Drugs, Ecstasy, and drug testing in raves and clubs.

Drug Policy Alliance - <http://www.drugpolicy.org>. ~ The world's most comprehensive web site on harm reduction and drug policy issues.

Drug Policy Expert Committee – Australia <http://www.health.vic.gov.au/drugservices>. ~ The Drug Policy Expert Committee has been promoting drug policy reform to Australian.

Drug War Facts - <http://www.drugwarfacts.org/>. ~ A collection of useful reference material on the failures of the drug war.

DrugSense: Drug Policy Reform - <http://www.drugsense.org/>. ~ This site is connected to the Media Awareness Project (above) and provides chat rooms etc. to expand the media issues.

Drugtext - <http://www.drugtext.org>. ~ This site collects the full text of books, reports, etc. on drug issues.

European drug policies - <http://www.encod.org/rap-kaarteuropa.html>. ~ A brief summary of the current status of drug policy in most European Countries.

Harm Reduction Coalition - <http://www.harmreduction.org/index.html>. ~ Many harm reduction resources including a very good section on news/ media releases.

Hit - <http://www.hit.org.uk/>. A UK website with many HR resources.

<http://www.brugerforeningen.dk/bfny.nsf/pagesuk/uk.html>. ~ The Danish “Junky” drug users union website.

<http://www.drug-policy.org/> ~ The Senlis Council is a group of “high level” Europeans who contribute to the drug policy debate.

Institute for Policy Studies Drug Policy Project <http://www.ips-dc.org/projects/drugpolicy.htm>. ~ An American drug policy reform think-tank

International Harm Reduction Association - <http://www.ihra.net>. ~ An organization which oversees a number of services and websites and publishes the International Journal of Drug Policy.

Law Enforcement Against Prohibition - <http://www.leap.cc>. Enforcement staff offer speakers, publications , etc in support of a regulated drug market.

Media Awareness Project - <http://www.mapinc.org/>. ~ The site for media coverage of harm reduction/policy issues.

Transform - <http://www.tdpf.org.uk/> ~ A UK group which is advocating for a regulated market for all currently illegal drugs.

Transnational Institute for Drugs and Democracy <http://www.tni.org/drugs/index.htm> ~ An international group who examine how drug policy effects democracy around the globe.

The Vaults of Erowid: Documenting the Complex Relationship Between Humans and Psychoactives www.erowid.org/. An interesting site which has information on drugs, the law and culture.