

Beyond “Enabling”

A Workshop for Health and Social Service Providers on Integrating Harm Reduction into Practice

APRIL 7, 2009 | 1pm - 4:30pm

Ambrosia Centre, 638 Fisgard Street

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

AIDS Vancouver Island

Centre for ADDICTIONS
RESEARCH OF BC

Part 1: Harm Reduction is a Tool

1. THE EVIDENCE FOR INTEGRATING HARM REDUCTION
Presenter: Dr. Thomas Kerr, Director, Urban Health Research Initiative, BC Centre for Excellence for HIV/AIDS, Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, UBC
2. HARM REDUCTION THEORY AND PRACTICE:
A VIEW FROM THE FRONTLINE
Presenter: Mark Haden, Clinical Supervisor Addiction Services
Vancouver Coastal Health and Drug Policy Educator

Part 2: The Relationship is the Intervention

1. WHAT GETS IN THE WAY: STIGMA AND DISCRIMINATION
AND THE IMPACT ON SERVICE ACCESS
Presenters: Dr. Bernie Pauly, UVic School of Nursing and Research Associate, Center for Addictions Research B.C.,
Jill Cater from SOLID
2. HEALTH CARE FOR PEOPLE WHO USE INJECTION DRUGS:
THE CLIENT CAREGIVER RELATIONSHIP
Presenters: Dr. Chris Fraser, Cool Aid Community Clinic Physician, and Anne Drost, Cool Aid Community Clinic Nurse

This event is free and light snacks and coffee will be provided. Please register online before April 3, 2009 at: www.beyondenabling.eventbrite.com Space is limited. For more information call (250) 384-2366, ext 112.