

W.O.O.D.S.Q.U.A.T. #43

THE MEDIA CANNOT BE REFORMED

The Vancouver Sun printed 40,000 copies of its early edition on 20 September before pulling the run from its presses. The cover image (left) was replaced by the digital “illustration” (right) that removed the protesters and banners.

DAY 69 – THURSDAY – 21 NOV 02

PRINT MEDIA PERTAINING TO THE WOODWARDS SQUAT

NOTE: THIS BIBLIOGRAPHY IS NOT COMPLETE. IF YOU KNOW OF ARTICLES NOT ON THIS LIST (ESPECIALLY FROM SING TAO DAILY & PAPERS OUTSIDE OF VANCOUVER PLEASE CONTACT US AT FRIENDS@WOODSQUAT.NET).

SEPTEMBER

- Ian Austin & Jack Keating, "Squatters occupy old store to push for social housing." The Province (Monday 16 September 2002); [w/ two colour photos of Kerry Pakarinen and the building].
- Staff writer, "Injunction granted to evict activists B.C. Housing wants to unload Woodward's." The Vancouver Sun (Monday 16 September 2002); [w/ colour photos of Sky].
- David Hogben & Neal Hall, "Police deliver injunction, but let defiant squatters stay." The Vancouver Sun (Tues 17 September 2002).
- Susan Lazaruk, "Squatters defy injunction, seek talks: Housing minister says building unfit for habitation." The Province (Tuesday 17 September 2002).
- Suzanne Fournier & Greg Middleton, "Squatters settle in: The homeless are all coming to Woodward's, says protester." The Province (Thursday 19 September 2002).
- Brian Peterson, "Homeless finally get some attention." Westender (19-25 September 2002); 10.
- Diana Bennett, "A new plan for the city's 'black hole'?" Westender (19-25 September 2002); 10.
- Westender Staff, "Squatters voice needs at demo." Westender (19-25 September 2002); 10.
- Doug Ward, "Developer eyes Woodward's as squatters dispute escalates." The Vancouver Sun (Friday 20 September 2002); A1/4 [w/ the infamous faked "photo illustration" by Roger Wantanabe and Ian Smith].
- John Mackie, "Old lady of Hastings a rich part of city's lore--what will be her fate? Woodward's building is now the epicentre of social problems in the Downtown Eastside." The Vancouver Sun (Friday 20 September 2002); A4 [w/ photo of inside the squat].
- John Mackie, "Life and times of Woodward's." The Vancouver Sun (Friday 20 September 2002); A5 [Chronology 1892-2002 w/ seven historical photos].
- Steven Reddy & Keir Nicoli, "Housing activists occupy Downtown Eastside building." The Peak [Simon Fraser University] (23 September 2002); 7 [w/ colour front page photo of Sky & inside photo of two people with banner].
- David Hogben & Neal Hall, "Protesters abuse police: Woodward's squatters confront officers after possessions thrown in garbage." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 24 September 2002); B4 [w/ photo of resident sitting in street].
- Vancouver Sun Editors, "Building a touchstone for a troubled area." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 24 September 2002); A14.
- Various, "Squatters' rights: How much does the community owe to the people who took over the vacant Woodward's building? It's open to debate." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 24 September 2002); A15 [Three letters by Jim Moorhead, Bertha Hanschke and T.L. Grafton w/ photo of residents and supporters entering building on ladder].
- David Carrigg, [article]. The Vancouver Courier (25 September 2002); [w/ photos of Kaspar & Nathan].
- The Province Editors, "Social housing demand requires larger floor plan." The Province (Thursday 26 September 2002); A18 [w/ Krieger editorial cartoon "Social Housing"].
- Westender Editors, "A wet kiss for the Liberals." Westender (26 September - 02 October 2002); 6 [w/ digitally enhanced photo of "W" with banners stating "The Sun's Olympic Shame" and editorial cartoon by Robin K.].
- David Carigg, "Gimme Shelter." The Vancouver Courier (Friday 27 September 2002); 1/3-5 [w/ four photos of "gimme shelter" banner, Nathan Garfat, signs, and sidewalk shelters].
- Rodney Decroo, "The invisible people: Interview with Kerry Pakarinen, homeless activist." Terminal City Weekly (27 September - 03 October 2002); 7.

Brian Salmi, "Downtown Eastside is SO a ghetto: and the peasants are revolting." Terminal City Weekly (27 September - 03 October 2002); 19.

Various, "What should we do with Woodward's? A blend of mixed housing with a commercial component, and even moving city hall, is the order of the day from these movers and shakers." The Vancouver Sun (Saturday 28 September 2002); B4-5 [short articles and mug shots of Peter Busby, George Abbott, Larry Campbell, George Chow, Arthur Erickson, Jennifer Clarke, Bryce Rostich, Michael Harcourt, Bing Thom, Ernie Fladell, Michael Geller, and Jim Green; includes three historical photos of the building].

Stephen Thomson, "Woodwards protest perseveres." The Peak [Simon Fraser University] (30 September 2002); 6.

OCTOBER

Shawn M., "Bustin' into Woodwards." Carnegie Newsletter (01 October 2002); 2.

Patrick Foley, "Woodwards squatters denounce police threats." Carnegie Newsletter (01 October 2002); 3-5 [includes "Raise Shit and Resist" cover drawing by Dian].

Kimball Cariou, "Vancouver squatters vow to continue struggle." People's Voice (1-5 October 2002); 1/6 [w/ two photos of banners].

People's Voice Editors, "Support the squatters!" People's Voice (1-5 October 2002); 4.

Emily Howard, "Invest in social housing, not Olympics." The Vancouver Courier (Wednesday 02 October 2002); 11.

Jen Wright, "Homeless a product of past neglect." The Vancouver Courier (Wednesday 02 October 2002); 11.

Douglas Shanks, "Home Street Home: Woodward's protesters settle in for long legal battle." Westender (03-09 October 2002); 1 [cover photograph].

Mary Frances Hill, "Urban Legends: John Richardson" Westender (03-09 October 2002); 7 [w/ photo of Richardson].

Mary Frances Hill, "Developer eyes rentals at Woodward's." Westender (03-09 October 2002); 8 [w/ photo of resident].

Ilan Saragosti, "French connection for city street kids." Westender (03-09 October 2002); 9 [w/ photo].

Daniel Girard, "Fighting for a home." The Toronto Star (Saturday 05 October 2002); H1/4 [w/ colour photo of Toecutter].

David Carrigg, "Woodward's squat organizer works for city." The Vancouver Courier (Sunday 06 October 2002); 9.

Andrew Struthers, "Tent City diary." The Vancouver Sun Mix (Saturday 12 October 2002); D1/3-4 [w/ colour photos of Rob Miller, Sheil Beghorns, and Wesley Vandyk; photos of Mike Platts, Travis, Claude, and Lacey].

Doug Ward, "The lesson of 'Woodsquat'." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 15 October 2002); A1/5-6 [w/ colour photo of Vanessa in front of "the people will not be defeated" banner, photo of Travis, Sky & Jewel, photo of Jim Leyden, photo of Dan Lindsay with David Mitchell].

John Colebourn, "Protesters told to get packing." The Province (Wednesday 16 October 2002); A22.

Wyang Chow, "Developer warms against delaying Woodward's project: Geoff Hughes speaks out on eve of council vote on tax relief; Social housing activists reject 'marginal project'." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 22 October 2002); A1-2 [w/ creepy colour photo of Hughes "with wife Tanya"].

Frances Bula, "Not enough subsidized units, critics say." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 22 October 2002); A1-2.

Vancouver Sun Staff, "Squatters target six more buildings for occupation." The Vancouver Sun (Monday 28 October 2002); A1 [six colour photographs of buildings with blurbs and colour map of downtown]

Yvonne Zacharias, "Backers of Woodward's protest seek promise of social housing: 'People are ready to do direct action'." The Vancouver Sun (Monday 28 October 2002); A1/4 [w/ photos of APC organizer Shannon Bundock and Gastown Business Society coryn Jon Stovell].

Wyng Chow, "Developer says threats won't cloud his vision." The Vancouver Sun (Monday 28 October 2002); A1/5 [w/ two colour photos of Rob Miller of the squat & millionaire financier Geoff Hughes].

Mark Hume, "Hijacking the homeless." The National Post (Tuesday 29 October 2002); B1-2 [w/ colour photo of Gladiator].

Neal Hall & David Hogben, "Tent-city residents receive eviction notices from city." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 29 October 2002); A1-2 [w/ colour photo of Claude Maurice].

Frances Bula, "NPA councillor voted for social housing just to 'calm things down'." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 29 October 2002); A1-2 [w/ two photos of the notorious Bryce Rostich and councillor Sandy McCormick].

Karenn Krangle, "Candidates against illegal squatting." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 29 October 2002); A2.

Vancouver Sun Editors, "Time to cry 'Enough!' on the anarchist squatters." The Vancouver Sun (Tuesday 29 October 2002).

Jack Keating, "Woodward's squatters get their walking papers." The Province (Tuesday 29 October 2002); A27.

David Hogben, "Squatters face noon deadline: Without court order, Woodward's campers will stay put, rep says." The Vancouver Sun (Wednesday 30 October 2002); B1-2 [w/ colour photo of Joe Vanancio & sleeping resident]

Tom Sandborn, "The Sun's in the spell of anarcho-hackers." The Vancouver Sun (Wednesday 30 October 2002); A23.

Harrop, "City eviction notice." The Vancouver Sun (Wednesday 30 October 2002); [editorial cartoon].

Paul Sullivan, "Home at the Woodward's squat." The Globe and Mail (Wednesday 30 October 2002); A19.

John Colebourn, " 'I'd love to work, but since I can't ...' ." The Province (Thursday 31 October 2002); A12 [interview w/colour photo of Chris Keats].

John Colebourn, "Woodsquat far from being over: City files writ for an injunction that might take weeks." The Province (Thursday 31 October 2002); A12.

Frances Bula, "As tent city grows, so do the services: Woodward's squatters have better access to food, clothing, health care." The Vancouver Sun (Thursday 31 October 2002); A1/A5; [w/colour photo of Chris Keats, Joey Only & Justin].

Neal Hall & Doug Ward, "Injunction sought on squatters." The Vancouver Sun (Thursday 31 October 2002); A5.

NOVEMBER

Province Staff Reporter, "Housing protesters dig in." The Province (Friday 01 November 2002); A25 [also an editorial cartoon "The homeless solution" on A18].

Doug Ward, "Woodward's squatters warn of 'other avenues': Some say they will occupy more vacant buildings if forced out by police." The Vancouver Sun (Friday 01 November 2002); B1-2.

Kevin Perley, "Shelters already overflowing." The Vancouver Courier (Wednesday 06 November 2002); 13.

Andy Ivens & Greg Middleton, "Judge sets protesters free and gives them each $100." The Province (Friday 08 November 2002); A13 [w/ photo of Judge Bennett].

Mary Frances Hill, "An end to vorter apathy?" Westender (14-20 November 2002); 13 [photograph & statement by Beverley Gladue].

John Colebourn & Andy Ivens, " 'Safety' behind move to shift squatters." The Province (Wednesday 20 November 2002).

Andy Ivens, " 'We feel safe in that place', squatters tells court." The Province (Thursday 21 November 2002); A11.

Amy O'Brian, "COPE split over squatters: Few support mayor-elect don injunction." The Vancouver Sun (Thursday 21 November 2002); A1-2 [w/ photo grid of COPE councillors and mayor-elect with statements].

Kim Pemberton & Karenn Krangle, "Squatters' lawyers ask for injunction delay." The Vancouver Sun (Thursday 21 November 2002); A2.