Aaron, thanks for the updates. I am away for the next 6 days and so will not be able to transcribe - no access to a computer, believe it or not! will check in when I'm back to see if there is more to do. Although I work as a poverty advocate and have - and regularly see oppression on a day to day basis and have faced down riot cops; I am very much moved by the witness' statements. Particularly the young woman who is witness # 4.
in solidarity,
Vicky

Vicky & Beth, thanks for all this work on the transcripts. I now have to track people down to edit them for formal legal submission. The situation here is tense, but upbeat? If that makes any sense. We had one great stroke of luck yesterday, an $8000 donation from a guy on the street who'd just received an inheritance. So many of the people in the squat are now in tents on the sidewalk & trying to keep a portion of it clear so the cops wont bust it up for obstruction. There is a general meeting tomorrow to decide about revising demands, updating strategy etcetera, so I'll keep you posted. Aaron Vidaver
