

Women-Only Writing Fightback Workshop

At the Kootenay School of Writing
201 – 505 Hamilton Street (at Pender)
604-688-6001

Two Sessions: Monday August 11th & Thursday August 14th

7-9pm

Were you at or around the Woodward's Squat? Or the new tent cities? Or living in an SRO? Or mismanaged social housing run by men? We want YOU to participate in a writing workshop at KSW facilitated by one of our long-time members. It's time to fightback not just in the street, but with words: written, spoken, yelled. If this sounds good to you register today. It's anonymous and we don't collect any information about people. KSW is a safe spot for women. We don't tolerate violence against women. Just show up with some writing, 2 or 3 poems or a page of journal writing. If you don't have anything, come anyway, with something to say about your experiences and be ready to comment on other women's writing.

Everyone gets a $3 stipend for each workshop.
